

"Some children who experience certain life events, or who live in certain circumstances, are more at risk of not receiving suitable education. These include :

children and young people under the supervision of the youth justice system;

children living in women's refuges;

children of homeless families, perhaps living in temporary accommodation, house of multiple occupancy or Bed and Breakfast;

young runaways

children whose parent/carer(s), fathers and/or mothers, and other close family members, move to another local authority area;

children who were registered with a school that has closed, and have not made the transition to another school;

children with long term medical or emotional problems;

children in families involved in anti-social behaviour;

children whose parents withdraw them from school in order to home educate them but then fail to provide a suitable education;

children who are on the child protection register;

children affected by substance and/or alcohol misuse;

unaccompanied asylum seekers;

children of refugees and asylum seeking families;

children in new immigrant families, who are not yet established in the UK and may not have fixed addresses;

children of families who can be highly mobile, eg parents in the armed forces; Gypsy, Roma and Traveller families;

children who have been bullied;

children who have been trafficked to, or within the UK;

children at risk of forced marriage;

looked after children/children in care;

children who are privately fostered;

young carers;

teenage mothers; and children who are permanently excluded from school, particularly those excluded unlawfully eg for problematic behaviour or offending"